

ISB to Host its 3rd Annual French and Spanish Children's Book Fair on Sunday, December 9 at PS 77 Auditorium

Brooklyn, NY, November 26, 2007 — For the third year in a row, International School of Brooklyn (ISB) will host its multi-language children's book fair featuring hundreds of books as well as educational magazines, CDs, DVDs and games in French, Spanish and English. The event will take place on Sunday, December 9 from 11am to 3pm at P.S. 77 Auditorium, in Park Slope (see details below).

After two successful Book Fairs, ISB will house the event in the spacious auditorium of PS 77 elementary school in Park Slope to accommodate for a record number of books to be sold, as well as as expected guests.

Families and educators will find recent children's best-sellers and classics in French or Spanish -- story books, picture books, chapter books and more from publishers including Bayard Jeunesse, Ecole des Loisirs, Gallimard Jeunesse, Lectorum, Milan Jeunesse, Santillana and others.

ISB will have free story-readings in French and Spanish, and a special presentation and reading in English by a Brooklyn Public Library librarian.

ISB's active Parents Association has also organized various activities including face painting, an illustration workshop for kids with a professional cartoon illustrator, as well as a 50-50 cash raffle, prize drawings and a bake sale to benefit the non-profit educational institution.

"This is one of our favorite community events of the year," says Rebecca Skinner, ISB's Executive Director and Co-Founder. "We are excited to again bring a wide variety of hard-to-find and beautifully-published children's language books to the broader community. And we are sure that the children will enjoy the activities lined-up for them."
